Good morning, I'm Candy. I'm now at Huasan 1914 Creative Park in Taipei. Look! I'm in front of a very cool house. Its name is "The Upside Down House." Go inside the house, and you can see many rooms in it. There are a living room, a dining room, a bedroom, a bathroom and a kitchen. Everything in these rooms is upside down, too. Tables, beds, chairs and even plants are all above your head. Oh, by the way, there is a garage with the car hanging upside down, too. Visitors can get into the side of the house and get out of the top of the house. You can take pictures in this house, but you can't touch those things. How interesting!
