四、閱讀測驗 20% (共 5 題)

(一) 請讀下列兩篇關於磨牙的文章，然後回答第 1- 2 題

Text 1

Some people grind their teeth when they sleep. In fact, about fifteen to thirty-three percent of children do. There is a name for teeth grinding: bruxism.

People who grind their teeth at night often have sore jaws during the day, and they can also get headaches. The grinding can wear down their teeth, too. There are several causes of teeth grinding in children, which include incoming teeth and stress.

Text 2

Dentists have ways to help people who grind their teeth while they sleep. For example, dentists say it is important to relax before going to bed. They also say to drink plenty of water during the day. Wearing a mouth guard at night may also be necessary for people who grind their teeth.

1. Which sentence best combines the main ideas of both texts ? (comebine 結合 , both texts 兩篇文章)

- (A) It is common for children and adults to grind their teeth when they sleep, and that can lead to sore jaws and headaches.
- (B) Teeth grinding can cause problems, but drinking water, relaxing before bed, and wearing a mouth guard at night can help.

2. Can people who grind their teeth ignore what the dentists say ?

- (A) Yes
- (B) No

(二) 請閱讀下列關於中古世紀騎士訓練階段的文章

To become a knight in the Middle Ages, boys had to work and train for years. At the age of seven, a boy would become another knight's page, or servant. When the boy turned fifteen, he would become the knight's squire, or "shield-bearer." Squires learned to fight and ride horses. If the squire proved himself in battle, he finally became a knight at the age of twenty-one.

請將下列(A) (B) (C) 依照騎士從小到大訓練的階段排列

- (A) Boys become squires. (B) Boys become knights. (C) Boys become pages.
